Strated.

The floral offerings of the New Year were not numerous. A luxuriant bouquet adorned the deak of Vice-President Stevenson, but he appeared to be the only one in the Senate receiving this mark of favor.

Among the first to appear on the floor was Senator Hist, of New York, and he was shortly joined by Senators Voorhees, of Indiana; Allison, of Iowa, and Mills, of Texas.

Immediately after the reading of the Journal, Senator Blackburn, of Kentor Eppa Hunton, of Virginia, and the oath of office was administered to the new Senator.

Senator Frye, of Maine, presented a resolution declaring that, in the opining of the Senate during the investigation of the Committee on the part of the United States by no influences on physical force for the restoration of Queen Lilluckalani, or for the mintenance of the Provisional Government of the Hawalian Islands, and that naval forces should be used in the islands only for the protection of the insurement of the Hawalian Islands, and the islands only for the protection of the table for the present and stated that he would later ask is reference to the form the resolution lie upon the table for the protection of the law like islands and at 1.25 and journed.

The income tax feeture is coming in for the greatest attention. As yet, however, the details of the assessment and collection of tax have been perfected.

The first consideration has been given to "voiding, as far as possible, the inquisitorial features of such a measure. For this resion it has been practically concluded to de away with assessors and the officers, who would ferret out incomes, and to place the main reliance on voluntary reports from those receiving incomes of over $4,000.

There were only two points, he sai to be considered. The first was wheth it was necessary to aver in the indistinct an intention to defraud. This, decided in the negative. Nothing ne be averred, but that money was ceived after the knowledge by the rectors of the insolvency of the bank. The second point was whether the dictment was so framed as to hold other directors as principals. This decided in the affirmative, for there was tested and count which charged it President Blaut had actually received money from depositors after the bawas known to be insolvent, and that had been sided, abetted and counsel by the other two directors. Soulard a McDonald, and that under the state they could be held as principals.

So long as there was one count in indictment which would hold it we be sufficient to save it. On these grow the Court would overrule the demurit to these particular indictments, and defendants would therefore be oblit to renew their pleas.
